

Enjoy endless experiences and fun at different Journey by Rail en-route destinations.

- Select a scheduled route and choose from many things to do during layovers.
- Or, enjoy a Journey that features a specific activity like golf, skiing or otherwise.
- Or, small groups can select their own preferred route and layover adventures.

Golf - Different Destinations

Great courses, fun format tournaments, post game events

Favorite, unique or customary en-route destination activities can be reserved in advance, or enjoyed on an impromptu basis at a layover destination.

In addition to those included in some all-inclusive Journeys, optional things to do include exclusive favorably priced Tracks to Adventure™ excursions and out-of-the-ordinary experiences, or other tours offered by local suppliers.

Scheduled and private group Journeys can travel to major sport and other events, like the Kentucky Derby, Super Bowl, Mardi Gras, Daytona 500 and others; or, one that you choose.

From the Atlantic to the Pacific oceans and Mexico into Canada, summer or winter, there is no other vacation that offers a similar variety of unique and enjoyable adventurous or tranquil things to do.

National Parks

Time to explore

Relaxation

Beaches and sunshine

Skiing

Different places

During en-route destination layovers, after a day enjoying local activities, passengers return to their luxurious rail cars; there is no need to move to and from a hotel.

Adventure

Lots of choices

Natural Attractions

From coast to coast

Self Indulgence

Pamper yourself

No other vacation provides access to an almost endless selection of things to do.